LSWO Latinx Social Work Conference
Spring 2020

Date: May 1\textsuperscript{st} and 2\textsuperscript{nd}, 2020
Host: Portland State University SSW
Portland, Oregon 97201

Call for Workshops, Panels, and Student Poster Sessions:
Instructions for submission
Latinx Social Work Conference 2020
May 1 and 2, 2020

The goals of the presentations are to advance knowledge and skill in the areas of research, advocacy, and practice.

The LSWO is open to all proposals which considers Social Work Practice within Latinx communities. The following list has been developed by the LSWO Latinx Advisory committee, and here are recommended areas.

- Ethics – Integration of technology, social media for therapeutic purposes, and confidentiality as it relates to documentation and privacy.
- Clinical supervision
- Suicide and Self-mutilation
- Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy
- Treatment of ADHD using medication and non-medication approaches
- Internal Family Systems Therapy Model
- Multi Systemic Therapy
- Solution Focused Therapy
- Somatic Experiencing approach
- Autism and Sensory Disorders
- Emotionally Focused Therapy
- Social justice
- Immigration
- Unconscious Bias/Micro aggressions in the workplace.
- Issues of racial equity
- Advocacy Training
- Legal system (sexual harassment, immigration, rights in the workplace, incarceration)
- Leadership
- Attachment (addiction, trauma, education, children),
- Positive psychology
- Transference / countertransference
- Use of technologies (Apps, Ted Talks, Podcast)
- LGBTQ Population
- Emotional intelligence with children and adults
- Triple P training on Parenting
- Advanced practice in DBT
- Trauma Informed Care
- Complex trauma
- CBT/THC for treatment of pain and anxiety and completion of state forms
- Domestic Violence in the LGBTQ+ community

Workshop and Panel Proposals are due by 12/31/2019
Student Poster Sessions are due by March 15, 2020
Submit your Proposal, and provide A through H.

A. Proposal Cover Sheet:
   1. An enticing, captivating presentation title (up to 10 words max) that clearly conveys the presentation content.

B. Type of Presentation
   1. Panel Presentations are limited to 3 speakers, and Workshop Proposals are limited to 3 speakers, and Student Poster Sessions can have up to 3 presenters.

C. Presenter Information for Workshops or Panel Presentations or Student Posters:
   1. Each presenter’s name, highest social work and/or other academic degree, license level, current job title, and employer. Indicate lead presenter if there is more than one presenter. All communications regarding your conference proposal will be shared with only the Lead Presenter. The Lead Presenter will upload this proposal at www.lswo.org and www.lswo2020.org
   2. Each presenter’s mailing address, phone numbers (work and home), and email address.

D. Questions Regarding Your Proposed Presentation
   The following questions may be answered with bullet points and/or 1-2 sentences):
   1. What is/are the core idea(s) of the presentation?
   2. What innovations in direct practice, administration, policy, research, education, advocacy, or theory are featured in your presentation?
   3. What is the connection of your topic to issues of social and economic justice, culture, ethics, advocacy and/or policy? Please be specific.
   4. Every presentation must address issues in the Latinx population. How will your presentation address them? Please be specific.
   5. How will your presentation format engage the audience and promote interaction?

E. Abstract
   Abstract must be a maximum of 250 words.

F. Learning Objectives
   List four (4) measurable / observable learning objectives.

G. Summary of Your Program
   Up to a 30-Word Summary of your presentation for use in the conference Program Book.

H. Reading List
   Please include a reading list, journal literature. or bibliography which supports your proposal.

Go to www.lswo.org or www.lswo2020.org and complete the online form and upload your proposal.

Submissions will be assessed, based on the following:
Clarity, organization, and quality of content.
Experience with and depth of knowledge about the proposal content.
Innovation and creativity in practice, leadership, advocacy, and research.
Relevance and applicability to clinical, or mezzo, or macro practice, within the Latinx community,

LSWO
Latino Social Workers Organization

LSWO appreciates the support of Portland State University SSW:
Dean Jose Coll, PhD and all the faculty and administrative staff supporting this 2020 Spring Conference!

LSWO Latinx Advisory Committee
Adriana Gonzalez Sandrolini, LCSW
Susie Ortega, LCSW
Mayra Soto Gonzalez, LCSW
Norma Haro, LCSW
Matilde Torres, LCSW
Alejandra Reyes, LCSW
Josette Heredia Carmona, LCSW

LSWO Faculty Reviewers
Leticia Villarreal Sosa, PhD, LCSW
Dominican University
Iraida V. Carrion, PhD, LCSW
University of South Florida
Carmen Monico, PhD, MSW, MS
Elon University
Rey C. Martinez, PhD
New Mexico Highlands University
Pablo Arriaza, PhD, LCSW
West Chester University
Catherine Marrs Fuchsel, PhD, LCSW
St. Catherine University

LSWO Social Media Marketing
Cheryl Aguilar, LICSW

If you have any questions, contact us:
Email address: socialwork@lswo.org or Adrian Delgado, LCSW at adrian@lswo.org or Norma Haro, LCSW, at nharo@lswo.org